

Performance Character Trait

BINGO

| Courage                                  | Integrity  | Leadership   | Energy/Zest                                    | Creativity                                     |
|--|--|--|--|--|
| Try a new math strategy                  | Lights out and tech off by 8 pm                  | Encourage a classmate or sibling to study  | Practice basic facts while doing jumping jacks | Create a test prep routine                     |
| Curiosity                                | Focus/Self-control                               | Social Intelligence  | Creativity                                     | Optimism                                       |
| Research a former governor of LA         | Read a non-fiction text or article for 5 minutes | Share a relaxation tip with a sibling or friend  | Create a chant to encourage classmates         | Make a list of all the things you have learned |
| Grit                                     | Humility   | FREE | Initiative                                     | Leadership                                     |
| Swap out some screen time for study time | Ask questions when you don't understand          |  | Create a schedule for reading each day         | Try a new testing strategy                     |
| Energy/Zest                              | Courage  | Initiative   | Focus/Self-control                             | Grit   |
| Eat a healthy breakfast                  | Try a new testing tool                           | Log on to the practice test three times a week   | Eliminate distractions when studying           | Learn a new test strategy                      |
| Integrity                                | Social Intelligence                              | Optimism   | Curiosity                                      | Humility                                       |
| Trust your own answers                   | Help a sibling or friend create a study schedule | Rework a problem/ don't give up on the first try   | Research renewable energy resources            | Ask your teacher about an area for improvement |